

Ramsey Kazem is Vice President, East Coast for Spark Compliance Consulting. With a focus on anti-bribery & corruption, human trafficking and data privacy, Ramsey specializes in developing strategies aimed at mitigating an organization's legal and compliance risks. His expertise includes preparing risk assessments, evaluating and improving compliance programs, implementing due diligence programs, investigating claims of misconduct and advising on remediation strategies.

Prior to his work in compliance, Ramsey was a practicing attorney in Atlanta, Georgia. His legal practice focused on construction law, federal government contracts, and commercial litigation. During this time, he gained extensive experience assisting businesses with risk management, claims avoidance, and dispute resolution. Ramsey was selected as a Georgia Super Lawyers Rising Star in construction law from 2005-2006 and 2009 through 2014.

Ramsey is originally from Nijmegen, the Netherlands. He received his B.S., magna cum laude, in Finance with a concentration in International Business from Fairleigh Dickinson University. After college, he attended law school and business school at Emory University, where he earned his J.D. and M.B.A. In 2015, Ramsey completed a graduate certificate program in Global Compliance and Ethics.
