

Continuing Education Units

The Atlanta Compliance and Ethics Roundtable is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its web site: www.nasbaregistry.org.

Participants will earn 6 CPE credits in Specialized Knowledge.

This educational activity has been approved for 6 hrs. of continuing education units from the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics (SCCE), the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) and the State Bar of Georgia.

The Atlanta Compliance and Ethics Roundtable educational sessions are designed for compliance, audit, and risk professionals. Our educational sessions are presented in a Group-Live format, and each subject matter is covered in a basic manner. There are no prerequisites for our programs, and no advance preparation is needed.
